

UNION STATION AND COLUMBUS MEMORIAL FOUNTAIN, WASHINGTON, D. C.

When one emerges from the train and enters the Passenger Concourse of the Union Station at Washington, he finds himself in what is the largest room under one roof in existence. The Concourse is 760 feet in length. The Main Waiting Room is 220x130 feet, with a height of 120 feet, and in each end is a circular window 75 feet in diameter. An army of 50,000 men could stand on the floor. The Union Station is one of the great terminals of the world. The structure is of the monumental type. In the plaza is seen the Columbus Fountain.
